Urology Research & Education Foundation 4 Man Scramble

Dr. Pat Fulgham and the Urology Research and Education Foundation Board are proud to present the 2009 John L. Denman Prostate Cancer Awareness Golf Tournament. The proceeds benefit the foundation's efforts to conduct research, provide free prostate cancer screenings in the community, and fund prostate cancer education programs. Urology Research & Education Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit entity.

This year's event will be held Monday, September 21st at the well-manicured El Dorado Private Country Club in McKinney. Registration, lunch, and warm-up begin at 11:30 am, with tee-off at 1:30 pm.

The cost for this event is only $400 per team or $100 per person. This price includes entry into all events, 18 holes of golf, riding cart, lunch and various awards and activities. Immediately after golf there will be an awards ceremony featuring door prizes, an auction, heavy hor d'ouvres and a very special scotch tasting.

To help us properly plan for this event, please complete the attached entry form (page 2 of this flyer) with payment and return to the event organizer as convenient.

Scotch Tasting by Russ Kempton

Russ has been in the alcoholic beverage industry for over 25 years and participated in over 850 seminars and training events (private, consumers, customers and charities) related to distilled spirits and wine. He has an excellent understanding of Single Malt Scotch, having traveled on numerous occasions to distilleries throughout Scotland. He has written many articles on the subject and has a unique comprehension and knowledge of these prestigious distilleries in Scotland. Also, Russ is a Prostate Cancer Survivor.
